

QUESTIONNAIRE FOR FEDERAL PERSONNEL

The Privacy Act of 1974, Public Law 93-579, states in part: "The purpose of this Act is to provide certain safeguards for an individual against invasion of personal privacy by requiring Federal agencies ... to permit an individual to determine what records pertaining to him are collected, maintained, used, or disseminated by such agencies." The questions below are based upon that Act.

DISCLAIMER: Under the Act, you have a right to get a response from a federal official seeking information from you. Be aware, however, that an authorized government agent may be able to execute a valid search or arrest warrant prior to responding. Seek legal advice as soon as possible.
